

I travel frequently and rely on traffic and weather information from my XM Radio. I pay for this service in the same way that I pay for cable TV, cell phone coverage and internet access. I don not believe that the NAB should be allowed to dictate what I chose to listen to, especially if I am paying of the service. It is none of their business.

I respectfully urge the FCC to REJECT NAB's petition 04-160.